

The Ant and the Grasshopper

One hot summer's day, Grasshopper was dancing, singing happily and playing his violin with all his heart. He saw Ant passing by, carrying a sack of wheat on his back to store for the winter. The Grasshopper asked the Ant to come and sing with him instead of working so hard. The Grasshopper said "Let's have fun together."

"I must store food for the winter", said Ant. The Ant advised the Grasshopper to do the same. "Don't worry about winter, it's still very far away", said Grasshopper, laughing at him. But the Ant wouldn't listen and continued his toil.

When winter came, the starving Grasshopper went to the Ant's house and humbly begged for something to eat. "If you had listened to my advice in the summer you would not now be in need," said Ant. "I'm afraid you will have to go to bed without food." Then he closed the door.

Toil-work hard

Starving-very hungry
