

FASN MUN'22

“The youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow.”

-Nelson Mandela

The second edition of the virtual Model United Nations on the 22nd and 23rd of January was a two day affair with umpteen debates, innumerable discussions and ingenious solutions. In the midst of the darkness that besets us- our endangered livelihoods, sluggish economic growth and the ongoing geopolitical issues that threaten the world order- the MUN became a backdrop for fruitful discussions of problems.

The event commenced with an opening ceremony which was graced by the presence of the chief guest Mr.Rohit Wellington, the illustrious newsroom anchor and editor of primetime show at NDTV 24x7, Reverend Father Carvalho and Principal Ma'am Mukti. The members of the organizing panel introduced the various committees to the delegates- namely the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA), the United Nations Security Council (UNSC), United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) and All India Political Party Meet (AIPPM) along with the indispensable International Press. Mr. Rohit Wellington and Father Carvalho enlightened the students with a few words before the Secretary General declared the conference open.

What ensued was a two day long active discussions in all the committees. The United Nations General Assembly deliberated on the agenda 'Integrating climate measures in global policies with special emphasis' concerning the recent efforts of the countries to minimize carbon emissions. The delegates discussed the detrimental impact of climate change and put forth the steps to combat the issue that has taken the world by storm in recent years. The Executive Board was left impressed by the delegates enthusiasm and ingenuity.

Meanwhile, the United Nations Security Council addressed the problem of 'global terrorist financing, recruitment and spread of terrorist narratives on digital platforms', a grave issue which has threatened to disturb the very foundations of world peace.

The United Nations Humans Right Council sat together to discuss on the agenda 'promotion and protection of human rights of civilians in armed conflicts and post conflict situations', addressing the recent hostile takeover of Afghanistan with the images and stories of people's hardships and distress flooding throughout the world.

All India Political Parties Meet drafted a resolution and deliberated on the agenda 'strengthening the health infrastructure and system of India in the light of the COVID-19 pandemic' which oversaw discussions on how the pandemic illuminated the harsh realities of the Indian healthcare system.

The event ended with the closing ceremony on the 23rd wherein the best delegates were felicitated.
