NOTE FOR THE PARENTS :	*Parents must practice picture description with their wards in a fun and engaging way. Some suggestions: 1. Storybook Time: - Encourage your child to describe what they see on each page. Ask open-ended questions like, "What do you notice in this picture?" or "Can you tell me about the characters in the story." 2. Draw and Describe: Have drawing sessions in which your ward can create her/his own pictures after which ask them to describe their artwork . 3. Describe and Find: Play a "describe and find" game. Describe an object or scene without showing it, and have your child find or draw what you described. Then, switch roles where your child describes, and you find or draw.
